7 Perfect Activities for Teaching the Present Perfect

1 Great Accomplishments

What are some of the things your Ss have already accomplished at this time in their lives? Ss share 2-3 things they have done that they are most proud of (in front of the class). The rest of the class asks questions.

2 Have You Ever?

Each S writes 5 sentences stating something he/she did in the past at a specific time, using the Simple Past & the time of the event. Example: "I walked my dog yesterday." Ss exchange papers & rewrite those sentences using the Present Perfect + "before", omitting the time marker. "Hyun has walked his dog before."

3 How Many Times Since

How often do your Ss do daily activities like brushing their teeth, changing their clothes and eating a meal? Review how to use "since", then ask Ss how many times they have done those since yesterday, last week, last month etc.

4 Great Ambitions

What do your Ss want to do that they have not done yet? Review with your class the proper use of the adverb "yet" and then ask them to share with a partner 3 things they have not done yet that they would like to do.

5 Most Deprived

Arrange chairs facing into a circle for all but 1 of your Ss. S1 stands in the middle & announces something he's never done (Pres. Perf). Anyone in the circle who has done that activity gets out of his seat & races to find a new seat. S1 tries to sit in one of the empty seats as well. The person left standing after everyone else is sitting takes the next turn in the middle of the circle.

6 Bucket Lists

Brainstorm every activity you have done or would like to do. Explain the term "bucket list", encourage Ss to think about what they would include on theirs. Ss take turns asking if their classmates have done each of these activities. Ss start with "have you ever" & answer with the Pres. Perf. Encourage Ss to share any surprising answers with the class after their discussion time is complete.

7 Since or For?

"Since" & "for" are often used with the Present Perfect to express a length of time a person has done a particular activity. Use "since" when offering a specific time and "for" for an amount of time. Review & have groups of 3-4 practice using since & for with the present perfect.
